College Students To Convene & Debate The State Of Public Education In Florida
~The 2nd Annual Florida Student Education Policy Conference will be held at the University of South Florida~

Tampa, FL- College students from across Florida will soon have the opportunity to weigh-in on Florida's public education reform debate. Sixty-five students representing ten universities will convene on the University of South Florida campus in Tampa for the 2nd Annual Florida Student Education Policy (FSEP) Conference on February 25th thru February 28th. The conference, facilitated by ENLACE Florida, is designed to provide students with a platform to deliberate the state of public education and recommend ways and means by which it can be improved. During the conference, students will develop policy recommendations on topics related to high school reform and college financial aid. Their recommendations will then be hand-delivered to members of the Florida Legislature by students themselves during future meetings in Tallahassee. Students were selected through a competitive application process by faculty leaders at each of the participating universities.
