Artwork entries submitted must include the sentence: "My _____ will help me prepare for college." For the contest, students are asked to fill in the blank with the skill that will most help them (e.g., "determination," "focus" or "passion") and create a drawing or photo that shows them putting that skill into action. Students can enter the contest by visiting www.KnowHow2GOFIorida.org. The contest deadline has been extended and runs through November 15, 2011. Contest winners will be announced November 21st.
