

You've Applied! Next Steps

Applying to college is an important step in continuing your education, but it is not the last step! Here is what you will need to do next:

Finalize your application

- Make sure your application fee has been paid
- Make sure your transcripts have been sent

Apply for financial aid

- Create your FSA ID, the username and password that you will need to log into the Federal Student Aid website and to sign the FAFSA form. Remember your password!
 - You and your parent will each need to create your own FSA ID.
 - Go to fsaid.ed.gov to get started.
- Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).
 - The FAFSA opens on October 1. Submit your application as early as possible.
 - Some aid is on a first-come, first-served basis. The earlier you complete the FAFSA, the more likely you are to receive some forms of financial aid.
 - Go to studentaid.ed.gov to get started.
- Complete the Florida Financial Aid Application (FFAA).
 - The FFAA opens October 1.
 - It is necessary to complete this application to receive state-funded grants and scholarships, including Bright Futures.
 - Complete the FFAA at www.floridastudentfinancialaids.org/ua/sawstua_uaform.asp.
- Apply for grants and scholarships, which do not need to be paid back.
 - Florida offers both need- and merit-based scholarships, including Bright Futures, First Generation Matching Grant, and Florida Student Assistance Grant.
 - Some of these scholarships require that you complete the FFAA.
 - Research local scholarships through your local education foundation, community foundation, or by speaking with your school counselor.

Get ready to go!

- Accept an admission offer by May 1.
- Attend new student orientation.
- Sign up for housing and a meal plan (if you plan to live on campus).
- Submit your housing deposit by the deadline (check your college's website for more information).
- Get necessary supplies, like books, dorm room essentials, etc.
- Register for classes if you did not already do so at student orientation.
- Have a great first semester!
